

Jewish Voice
for Peace

Building Power through Grassroots Membership

ANOTHER JEW
SUPPORTING DIVESTMENT

WHAT IS JVP MEMBERSHIP?

Any donation of $18 or more, or any monthly donation of $5 or more (Chai Club), qualifies you for an annual JVP membership.

Every time you give at least $18, your membership will be extended another 365 days from that date.

Chai Club (JVP's monthly donors) members will automatically be issued renewed annual membership one week before their expiration date. All other members will be reminded to renew at least one week before their expiration date.

Donors can choose to opt out of membership. Questions about JVP Membership? Contact Samantha@jvp.org

Becoming a JVP member sends a clear political message: we cannot and will not be complicit in Israeli human rights violations, or U.S. support for them.

WHY BECOME A JVP MEMBER?

- Invitations to member-only webinars and trainings
- Member-only news, updates, and analysis
- Support from JVP staff to plug into campaigns and projects
- Exclusive access to policy briefings
- Guidance and ritual materials from our Rabbinic Council
- Connections to our extensive network of chapters and local leaders
- Opportunities to build lasting personal connections

jvp.org/join

JUSTICE • EQUALITY • DIGNITY

In synagogues and in the streets, in DC and on campus, on stages and in divestment hearings, JVP members are organizing in their communities and demanding change.

Jewish Voice for Peace

Jewish Voice for Peace is the political home for the growing number of Jews and allies who are part of the global movement for justice that's challenging Israel's human rights violations and the institutions that support them. We believe that a lasting peace in Israel/Palestine can only come through freedom, justice, and true equality.

Shifting Culture

Artists and cultural workers help us envision justice and dream of a better world. The JVP Artists and Cultural Workers Council comprises writers, musicians, visual artists, filmmakers, dancers, and more.

Transforming Jewish Communities

We are challenging institutional Jewish communities to act on values of justice, and our Rabbinical Council and Open Synagogue Network are paving the path to justice-centered Jewish communities.

Winning Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions Campaigns

JVP answers the call for Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions (BDS) made by Palestinian civil society through strategic, dynamic, and effective local and national campaigns.

Influencing Policy-Makers

We can't change U.S. policy without changing Congress first. With our huge grassroots base, members of Congress are paying increasing attention to our message that all people deserve justice, fairness, and equality.

Organizing On Campus

JVP students push their universities to divest, build campus chapters, and fight unjust censorship of Palestinian voices. Our Academic Advisory Council brings together faculty committed to an open discussion of Israel/Palestine on campus.

Building Powerful Multi-faith Coalitions

We support churches in their efforts to align their values with their investments. Our Jewish Network Against Islamophobia supports organizing against Islamophobia and anti-Arab racism.

WHO IS JVP?

- Jews and allies inspired by Jewish tradition to fight for justice.
- Hundreds of thousands of members and supporters.
- Activists in over 60 chapters across the US.
- Partners in powerful multi-faith, multi-racial, multi-issue coalitions.
- Leaders on our many JVP Councils and Caucuses: Rabbis, Artists, Students, Jewish Professionals, Academics, and Synagogue Members.
- You! Join us:

jvp.org/join